

GALA EVENT

Will Be the Hibernian Field Day and Outing Next Saturday.

Portland and Limerick Will Contest For Honors on Field.

County Board and the Various Divisions Will Celebrate July 4.

GRAND FIREWORKS AT NIGHT

Louisville Hibernians are preparing for a great day on July 4. They expect to be doubly patriotic and will commemorate the Declaration of Independence and the love of Ireland at one and the same time. Gratitude is one of the greatest virtues of the Irish character and while they will assemble to play or witness Irish athletic games, they will not lose sight of the American anniversary. It was the United States that gave to their forefathers liberty and homes. They will never forget it. And so to celebrate the feast of American independence the four local divisions have arranged their annual field day and outing for next Saturday, and the White City will be the field of operations.

Irishmen who have come from Holy Head and Cork, from Dublin and Mayo, are all interested in the tug-of-war arranged between Tom Dolan's "Portland Pets" and John Hennessy's "Limerick Strong Men." Mr. Dolan is ready to spring his athletes on the public, but President Hennessy announces his team as follows: Peter and William Luskey, John O'Donnell, Owen Devaney, John McDermott, Pat O'Donnell, Martin Joyce, John Holmes, Thomas Farrell, John Doonan, Pat Kenney and Michael Sheehy. "They are stalwart six-footers and the team that beats them will be welcome to the barrels," says President Hennessy.

Among the other field day events will be egg races for girls, potato races for boys, putting, the shot, race for boys under twelve years and one for girls of the same age, throwing the hammer, 100 yard dash and a running hop, step and jump contest. Any one desiring to enter these contests should make their wishes known either to Capt. Thomas Delaney, 212 Portland avenue, or to John J. Barry, at the office of the Kentucky Irish American.

When the moon crosses between the sun and the earth the sun rays are overshadowed for a brief period, but the sun keeps on shining just the same. Just so will it be with the Hibernian outing. The field day events will eclipse for a time the other attractions, but will by no means interfere with them. An excellent band in the dancing pavilion will furnish rhythmic measures for all who like to trip the light fantastic during the afternoon and evening. Besides there will be an additional attraction in the way of a chariot race after the manner of the ancient Greeks and Romans. At night there will be a magnificent display of fireworks to add zest and enthusiasm to the day's festivities.

County President Murphy and his colleagues and committees from the four divisions have worked hard to make the day a success, and the price of admission, ten cents, ought to put it in the power of almost everybody in the Falls Cities to take in the outing. The divisions from Jeffersonville and New Albany are coming across the river in force, and the four local divisions have offered incentives to members to increase the sale of tickets. The indications are that the Fourth of July, 1908, will be an eventful day for Louisville Hibernians.

FILLED HALL.

The large hall at St. Xavier's College, Second and Broadway, was filled to overflowing Monday night when the college department held its commencement exercises. Not content with what they saw and heard Friday night, many of the parents and friends of pupils returned Monday evening to hear the final bout in the oratorical contest. None were disappointed. It was an entertainment to be proud of, and reflects great credit on the Xavierian Brothers, who have been so faithful and painstaking in educating the Catholic youths of this city.

Robert T. Barry, who was also the valedictorian, won the Frank A. Geher medal in the oratorical contest. Before saying farewell to his classmates and teachers Mr. Barry delivered an oration on "Self-Made Men." He handled his subject in a masterful manner, his enunciation was excellent and his gestures were graceful. The judges of the contest awarded him the prize, but they had a hard time in picking the winner from such an aggregation of young orators.

After delivering his salutatory address Charles E. Gaupin spoke on "The Poet Priest of the South." The other speakers and their subjects were John F. Sullivan, "Cathedral Names," William S. Lee, "Religion and Science," Joseph M. Hund, "The Power of the Catholic Press," Henry Caruth Hoertz, "Christian Democracy."

Each of these young men acquitted himself admirably, and each had champions in the audience who thought he should have won the prize.

In the junior class Jerome Ohlischlager was awarded a prize of $25 in gold for general merit. William G. Hume, of the class of 1893, delivered the alumni address. The exercises closed with an instructive address by the Very Rev. Father Louis G. Deppen.

EARNST WORKERS

Will Represent Mackin at Forthcoming Grand Council.

The election of delegates to the Grand Council of the Y. M. I. was the feature of paramount interest at the meeting of Mackin Council Tuesday night. The attendance was fair, considering the warm weather, and the following delegates were chosen: President Robert T. Burke, Thomas D. Clines, Frank Lanahan, John T. Kenny and Supreme Director James T. Shelley. Each of these gentlemen have worked long and earnestly in the interest of the council and the order, and will ably represent Mackin at the coming State convention.

President Burke presided throughout the meeting and the contests for delegates were spirited but friendly. The alternates chosen are Charles Rainey, Dan Weber, William M. Higgins, Edward Mackey and John Siewart.

Four members were reported on the sick list, and the council was grieved to learn that John Boland, who had been improving, suffered a relapse and was very ill. Two applications were received and the candidates elected. The Library Committee reported that three volumes of the Catholic Encyclopedia had been received and installed in the council's library. The matter of uniting the councils of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana with the Kentucky jurisdiction was discussed at some length, but the project did not meet with approval. The matter was not definitely settled, however.

DOUBLE EVENT.

Confirmation and Dedication Combined at North Vernon.

St. Mary's church, North Vernon, Ind., was crowded to the doors last Sunday morning, when the Right Rev. Denis O'Donoghue, auxiliary Bishop of Indianapolis, administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of fifty boys and girls. During the ceremonies he was assisted by the Rev. Fathers Boersig, of Madison, and Joseph Zieglermann, of St. Ann, Ind. After mass and confirmation the children were given a bountiful breakfast by the pastor, Rev. Father George Weidrin, assisted by the ladies of the congregation. At the close of the feast Bishop O'Donoghue addressed the children on the subject of confirmation.

During the morning also Bishop O'Donoghue dedicated the handsome and commodious new parochial school building. More than 500 visitors from surrounding townships and counties were in attendance. Excellent music was furnished by the K. C. Band of Madison and the North Vernon brass band. At the close of the dedicatory ceremonies Bishop O'Donoghue delivered a sermon on the general events of the day and the feast of Corpus Christi.

In the afternoon Hon. Thomas C. Mara, a prominent young attorney of Jennings county, Ind., delivered a lay address at the school house, in which he paid high tribute to the Catholics of Jennings county and their achievements for the church.

VICTIM OF SAD ERROR.

Unusually pathetic were the circumstances surrounding the death of little Ethel May Sanders at her home, 2215 Griffiths avenue, on Saturday of last week. The little girl received her first holy communion on the previous Sunday and before mass was over she fainted. Upon reaching her home the child's mother in a moment of excitement gave her a spoonful of carbolic acid, mistaking it for medicine. The mistake was not discovered in time. Physicians and friends did all possible to alleviate the child's sufferings, but she succumbed to death on Saturday. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Sanders, and was twelve years old. The funeral took place from St. Cecilia's church Monday morning.

WICKHAM EXONERATED.

Officer Con Wickham was entirely removed from criticism in the Police Court last Monday when arraigned for the killing of Luther Norwood. It was proven beyond a doubt that Norwood had sought trouble with Officer Wickham, and that the latter had home the child's mother in a moment of excitement gave her a spoonful of carbolic acid, mistaking it for medicine. The mistake was not discovered in time. Physicians and friends did all possible to alleviate the child's sufferings, but she succumbed to death on Saturday. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Sanders, and was twelve years old. The funeral took place from St. Cecilia's church Monday morning.

HONOR FOR TARPEY.

Thomas W. Tarpey, a leading Hibernian and member of the Knights of Columbus, was honored this week by being placed on the committee of resolutions at the national convention of the Travelers' Protective Association at Milwaukee. The Kentucky delegation was united on every proposition offered, and the election of Mr. Tarpey as the State's representative on such an important committee is a tribute to Louisville as well as the man.

FIGURES

Show How Certain States Can Change the Country's Policy.

Middle West Will Be the Main Battle Arena in Coming Campaign.

Bryan Will Undoubtedly Be the Leader of the Democratic Hosts.

REPUBLICANS ARE LOSING HEART

Things are simmering down to a working basis in national politics, and since the nomination of William Howard Taft for President, and James Schoolcraft Sherman for Vice President, on the Republican ticket, the wise leaders in both parties have gotten down to practical mathematics. Both sides practically conceded that the Middle West is to be the battle ground. Kentucky will go back to the Democratic party and the "Solid South" of course. The Republicans of New York feel that the people of their State are disgusted with the Hughes regime and are not a bit sanguine about carrying the State for Taft, even with "Sunny Jim" Sherman as the Taft kiter's tail.

In 1904 there were 476 votes in the Electoral College; but the admission of Oklahoma as a State increased this to 483. This will permit 242 to elect. In the States of the Middle West Indiana has fifteen votes, Illinois, twenty-seven; Michigan, fourteen; Minnesota, eleven; Nebraska, eight; Kansas, ten; Wisconsin and Iowa, each thirteen; total 111. Each of these States have a grievance against the Republican party. Fairbanks, Indiana's candidate for the Presidential nomination, has given a grievance, and in the aggregate hold the balance of power.

In the electoral college of 1904 there were 336 votes, including the above 111 cast for Theodore Roosevelt, and 140 for William Jennings Bryan. Take the 111 from Taft's year and give them to the Democratic nominee and he will have 241. Then add the seven new votes from Oklahoma and he will have 248, or six more than is necessary to elect. Besides there is no telling what may happen in New York.

It is almost as certain as human forecasts can make it that Bryan will be nominated by the Democratic national convention which will assemble at Denver July 7. A good live running mate from the Middle West is what the Democratic managers are looking for. John Mitchell, former President of the United Mine Workers, and the ablest labor leader in America, might have had the Democratic nomination for Governor of Illinois; he might also have had the nomination for Vice President. Mr. Mitchell has declined the gubernatorial nomination on the ground that he is not much of a politician. He has a position in Chicago that will pay him $6,000 a year, and his health will not prevent him entering a long and vigorous campaign. A good man from Kansas, Minnesota, Indiana or Wisconsin would add strength to the ticket headed by William Jennings Bryan.

Already there is alarm in the Republican camp, and Sherman's record in Congress is being attacked both in New York and in other States. N. B. Scott, of West Virginia, who has served twelve years as National committeeman from that State, has signified his intention of withdrawing, and gives as a reason: "I have been through three successful campaigns and I do not want to have my record broken."

DINNER-DANCE.

Mackin Council Shows Its Gratitude For Past Favors.

As a slight token of appreciation, Mackin Council entertained the members of its Choral Club with a dinner and dance at the Galt House from 8 o'clock until midnight Thursday night. The entire chorus as well as the principals who took part in the operetta, "A Midsummer Town," enjoyed the fete. The menu was conducted in accordance with Manager Shaughnessy's best style, and the music was declared to be "the best ever" by the young folks who took part in the terpsichorean festivities.

Messrs. Charles S. Ruddy, James T. Shelley, Louis J. Kiefer and Thomas D. Clines constituted the committee that had the affair in charge, and none of the Choral Club were disappointed with the arrangements. The young men and women who compose the club gave their time and talent for Mackin Council's benefit and that progressive body of young Catholic gentlemen took an early opportunity of showing its gratitude.

JOINED HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Edward J. McNally and little daughter have joined Mr. McNally, who is now general manager of the Oseola Club, the wealthiest and most exclusive social organization in Pensacola, Fla. Mr. McNally is well and favorably known in this city. He was for several years in the service of the Louisville Hotel, and later Superintendent of the dining car service for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company. His old friends in Louisville will be pleased to learn that Mr. McNally's health has improved wonderfully since he went to Pensacola.

CLOSE OF YEAR

Brought Many Visitors to St. Catherine's Academy's Exercises.

The beautiful grounds and handsome new buildings of the Academy of St. Catherine, of Sienna, near Springfield, Ky., looked more beautiful than ever Tuesday and last week on the occasion of the eighty-sixth annual commencement exercises of that institution. The grounds, corridors and halls were alive with pupils, parents, members of the alumni and the sweet voiced Sisters of St. Dominic.

The exercises did not begin until the visitors from Louisville and other way points arrived between 9 and 10 o'clock. The programme was just long enough to give one a desire for more. Tireless essays were avoided and in their stead vocal and instrumental solos and choruses, tableaux and a pleasing and edifying little drama were substituted. Interspersed with the other numbers were selections by the academy orchestra. The orchestra was composed of violins, violin-cellos, violas, mandolins, euphone, cornet, harp, drum and piano. The musicians were Misses Piety and Marie Barber, Mary Byers, Marie Belknap, Luella Bannon, Helen Jones, Katherine Newman, Nellie McGill, Sadie Parrott, Margaret Davis, Mary Curran, Corinne Mahoney, Helen Baker, Nellie McGillicuddy, Julia Goodin, Geneva Sullivan, Allie Prather and Louise Barber.

"The Christians Under Trajan" was the title of the drama, and depicted a little story of early Christian times. The actors were Misses Louise Gill, Emily Talbott, Piety Barber, Helen Jones, Gladys Randall and Marie Barber. Every number on the programme was pleasing and received its share of applause. After the conferring of degrees the exercises closed with the vocal chorus, "Ave Maria," by the senior vocal class.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. Sabina Duffy died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Thomas K. Hines, 1910 West Madison street, Tuesday evening, and the remains were sent to Indianapolis for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davenport, of 2411 Magazine street, have the sympathy of many friends on account of the death of their infant daughter Margaret last Monday. The little one was only ten months old, but had wound her baby tendrils around the hearts of her sorrowing parents.

Edward J. Dalton, the fourteen-year-old son of Mrs. Julia Dalton, died at the family residence, 2705 Floyd street, last Wednesday. The little fellow was bright and intelligent for his years. Dread tuberculosis was responsible for his death. The funeral took place from St. Charles' Borromeo church yesterday morning.

Mrs. Josephine Zahner, sixty-four years old, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Bosler, 1647 Everett avenue, Monday night. Her husband, L. F. Zahner, manager of the Vogel Shoe Company, her daughter, Mrs. Bosler, and one son, Joseph, survive. Mrs. Zahner was a devoted mother and a most capable business woman. The funeral took place from St. Mary's church on Wednesday morning and was largely attended. Mrs. Zahner was one of the best known German-American ladies in Louisville and was held in high esteem by a large circle of friends.

William P. Lawler, a former resident of this city, died in Cincinnati last Friday. He had been ill of pneumonia and on Thursday his brother, Hugh Lawler, and his nephew, Capt. Thomas Fitzgibbons, visited him in Cincinnati. He was considered much improved and his relatives returned to Louisville. They had hardly reached the city when the telegram announcing Mr. Lawler's death was received. The remains were brought to Louisville, and reposed at the home of Mrs. Rose Lawler, a sister-in-law, 1217 West Broadway street, until the funeral took place from St. Patrick's church Sunday afternoon.

The funeral of Christopher O'Connor, who died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas B. Leahy, 1910 Floyd street, Thursday afternoon of last week, took place from St. John's church Saturday morning. The deceased had been suffering from a complication of diseases for several weeks, and his death was not unexpected. Mr. O'Connor was forty-two years old and was a son of the late William O'Connor, who at one time represented the Fourth ward in the General Council. Chris O'Connor, as he was best known, was for many years an employee of the City Engineer's office, was a competent engineer and well liked. Four sisters survive him, Mrs. Thomas B. Leahy, Miss Marcella O'Connor and Mrs. Charles McGuire, of Louisville, and Mrs. Daniel McCarthy, of Sandusky, Ohio.

ROAD TO RECOVERY.

Joseph C. Kirchdorfer, a popular member of Trinity Council, is a very anxious parent these days. Two of his sons, Joseph, Jr., aged twelve years, and Raymond, eight years old, were operated on at St. Anthony's Hospital for appendicitis during the week and are now resting as comfortably as possible under the circumstances. It is believed that both children are out of danger.

BUNCOED.

Unionist Fakers Worked Old Time Shell Game on the Catholics.

Monaghan and Armagh Have Been Thrown Down Hard.

Ex-Grand Master of the Ulster Orange Grand Lodge and Co-opted.

CATHOLICS LOSE OUT AGAIN

The question of political, as well as religious tolerance, is still rife in the North of Ireland. Appropos of this feature of Irish politics, the editor of the Dundalk Democrat in his latest editorial remarks:

"The meetings of the Monaghan and Armagh Councils this week provide a useful lesson on the meaning of the word 'Tolerance' as understood by different people in this country. We Nationalists are constantly being lectured on our want of tolerance; and one of the cherished Unionist arguments against home rule is that under a National Government the minority would not only be outvoted and ignored, but would be crushed out altogether! As an answer to this argument we are frequently called on to give proof of our tolerance by electing Unionists to represent Nationalist constituencies, and in local elections we occasionally do so, to confound the enemy. But how about Unionist tolerance?"

At the annual meeting of the Monaghan County Council the Nationalist Chairman, Mr. Toal, proposed the co-optation of Lord Rossmore, and the motion was unanimously adopted by a Council exclusively Catholic. We don't know exactly what Lord Rossmore's present political views are. We know he has with mature years abated a great deal of the extreme opinions he once held; but he is at all events a landlord, a Protestant, and a Unionist. That he is personally desirous of a tolerant policy is proved by the Nationalist Chairman and Council of County Monaghan have every reason to believe. And for a proof of Nationalist tolerance we need not go further than this co-optation of the ex-Grand Master of the Orange Order by a body of Ulster Nationalists and Catholics.

"Turn now to County Armagh. On the County Council there are but eight Nationalists to twenty-two Unionists, though very nearly half the population of the county is Catholic. At the annual meeting of the County Council the eight Nationalists suggested that one of the co-optations should be given to their party, and put forward the name of Mr. McGarvey, who was defeated by a small majority in Newtownhamilton. E. Nugent, who proposed Mr. McGarvey, was able to point to the example given by the Newry No. 2 Rural Council, of which he is Chairman. This Nationalist body co-opted last week two Unionists, and elected a Unionist Vice Chairman. But did this example of Nationalist tolerance move the Unionist bigots of Armagh County Council to do likewise? No; one Unionist only voted with the Nationalists for Mr. McGarvey, and so the overwhelming Unionist majority on the Council was further added to.

"We do not refer to this for the purpose of deterring Nationalists from exhibiting tolerance in such matters, but we say that if there is to be tolerance it must be all-round tolerance. We must have tolerance shown to the Catholic minorities in Ulster, and then we will exhibit a like spirit to the scattered Unionists in Nationalist districts, and agree to bury the hatchet. A treaty to which only one party subscribes is not at all likely to promote peace or concord."

ECLIPSE TOMORROW.

Telescopes and Smoked Glass Will Be in Demand.

Astronomers all over the world are interested in the eclipse of the sun which will take place tomorrow. It will be almost but not quite a total eclipse of the sun's rays. The moon will cross the path of the sun, and for nearly three hours the planet we live on will present an appearance of twilight. This natural phenomenon will be visible in greater or lesser degrees over all the United States, Canada, Central and South America, Europe and Africa.

Scientists familiar with astronomy assert that a similar eclipse may not occur within the next hundred years. The planets Mercury, Venus, Mars, Neptune and Jupiter will be visible during part of the eclipse tomorrow, and people provided with telescopes will be anxious in their search of the heavens for the star Arcturus, which, unless it belies its reputation, is moving toward Louisville and other points on this planet at the rate of 360,000 miles each second.

CONTRADICTORY CABLEGRAMS.

The latest cablegram from Rome concerning the Vatican is very ambiguous, not to say contradictory. In one and the same breath the correspondent announces that the next Papal Consistory will not be held until December as a fitting close to the jubilee year, and then contradicts it by saying the Pope can set the date any time earlier he sees fit, even without consulting Cardinal Merry del Val, the Papal Secretary of State. The same correspondent claims that it is reported that two American and one English Cardinals are to be named, but he adds that it is improbable that any American Cardinals will be chosen at the coming consistory.

MEAGHER-DUFFY.

Brilliant Nuptial Ceremony That United Popular Couple.

One of the most brilliant of the June weddings was that which made Miss Mary C. Meagher Mrs. John A. Duffy. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Father Eugene V. Flood, O. P. A. St. Louis Bertrand's church at 8 o'clock Wednesday noon. The only attendants were the ushers, Messrs. Frank and Andy Meagher, Will Duffy and George Heith. The bride wore an empire gown of white silk trimmed with liberty satin, a tulle veil caught with lilies-of-the-valley, and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms and lilies-of-the-valley.

After the solemnization of the matrimonial rite a solemn high nuptial mass was celebrated with Father Flood as celebrant; Father Dunn, deacon, and Father Kernan, subdeacon. The music under the direction of Prof. Hemmersbach, was rendered by a splendid choir of male and female voices. The sanctuary was tastefully ornamented for the occasion.

After the ceremonies at the church the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denis Meagher, 1441 Seventh street, where an elegant breakfast was served. About noon Mr. and Mrs. Duffy left on an extended trip through the East. They will be at home to their friends at 1312 Brook street after July 10.

The bride is a charming woman, and has been much admired in local Catholic society circles. Mr. Duffy is associated with his father, M. J. Duffy, in the plumbing business. The Dominican church was crowded with friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

ALUMNAL MEETING.

Former Pupils Gathered in Annual Reunion Last Week.

Fifty of the former pupils of the Academy of St. Catherine of Sienna visited their alma mater last week to attend the annual commencement exercises and to take part in the alumnae exercises, which followed on Tuesday evening. Some of the alumnae even remained throughout the week and others still have remained throughout the present week. It was a happy home-coming for these old pupils and they made much of the good Mother Superior and the other nuns. Of course the white-robed daughters of St. Dominic smothered the visitors with kindness. The whole affair was a happy reunion for former pupils and teachers.

The banquet was elegant in every respect, and, as one of the alumnae expresses it, "the decorations of the refectory and tables, the service and menu, were exceptionally luxurious." Mirth gave additional appetite, and until the finish of the feast salutes of wit flashed across the tables. Later came the toasts, so aptly selected by Mrs. Barrett Hyatt, the toastmistress, and the genial and heartfelt responses, the whole concluding with the singing in chorus of "Auld and New." At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the alumnae society held a business meeting and elected officers for the year 1908-09. In the evening an entertainment was given at which the Rev. Father William Dunn, O. P. of St. Louis Bertrand's Convent, of Louisville, delivered the principal address. Father Dunn is one of the most eloquent men in the Dominican order, and his address made a great impression on all present.

LIMERICK GALLANTS.

Like gallant gentlemen the members of Division 4 held a very brief session this week in order that all might attend the outing given by the Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H., at the White City on Monday night. President John Hennessy hustled through the routine affairs. John Flynn, Charles Callahan and John Mangum were reported on the sick list, and applications were received from Patrick Howard, Edward Gorman and James Connelly. Several members signified their intention of attending the national convention at Indianapolis next month. At the close of the meeting the majority of those present went to the Ladies' Auxiliary outing.

MEMBERSHIP INCREASES.

Interest in the membership of Chickasaw Council, Y. M. I., at Memphis is increasing. At the latest meeting ten new members were initiated and thirty applications were received. In the contest are three teams with a captain and twenty men for each. The contest will close on the first Monday of July, when the new and old members will stand down to a Dutch lunch.

PICNIC FOR ST. PAUL'S.

The people of St. Paul's church, Jackson and Kentucky streets, are preparing to celebrate July 4 with a picnic at Phoenix Hill Park. Rev. Father Thomas A. York is a hard worker and his people always show their appreciation of his efforts whenever St. Paul's has an enterprising under way.

PEACEFUL

Will Be the Tournament Lists in Tomorrow's Great Tournament.

Swordless Knights Will Take Possession of Our Sister Falls City.

Candidates and Veterans Will Attend High Mass Before Initiation.

TOASTS AND THE TOASTERS

Everything is in readiness for the establishment of the new council of the Knights of Columbus at Jeffersonville tomorrow afternoon. In fact it will be Knights of Columbus day in that city and from morning until nearly midnight there will be something eventful all the time. A class of forty-seven candidates are to be initiated into the mysteries of the first, second and third degrees during the afternoon, and the festivities will close with a banquet to new and old Knights at 8 o'clock in the evening.

A committee of Jeffersonville gentlemen, who already belong to Louisville Council, have been working for months in organizing the new council in our sister city. In preparing for the big events of tomorrow these gentlemen feel that they have every detail arranged now, and are only waiting for the hour tomorrow when the hosts begin to gather. At 9:30 o'clock the candidates and visiting Knights will assemble at Elks' Hall at 1300 Spring street. Fifteen minutes later they will march in procession to St. Augustine's church, where the Rev. Father O'Connell will celebrate high mass. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Father Walter Cronin, of Rushville, Ind. Father O'Connell has requested his parishioners to attend an earlier mass tomorrow, so that the Knights may find plenty of room at the late mass. At the close of the mass the Knights will join in singing the Te Deum.

Candidates and Knights will assemble at Elks' Hall at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and at 2 o'clock Louisville Council's degree team will confer the first and second degrees. The Evansville Council degree team will then take hold and exemplify the third degree. The degree work will occupy several hours, and will be completed shortly after 5 o'clock. An elaborate spread has been arranged, and James E. Burke, one of Jeffersonville's popular Knights, will act as toastmaster. The speakers will be Hon. Edward J. McDermott and Judge Matt O'Doherty, of Louisville, and the Rev. Father Walter Cronin, of Rushville, Ind.

After the cigars have been lighted Toastmaster Burke will call on the orators of the evening to respond to the following toasts, "Duty of the Hour," Hon. Edward J. McDermott; Catholic Citizenship, Judge Matt O'Doherty; "Good of the Order," Rev. Walter J. Cronin. The menu for the banquet as arranged is: Spring Chicken on Toast, Cold Sliced Ham, Veal Roast and Dressing, Ox Tongue, Sweetbread Patties, Salmon Salad, New Potatoes in Cream, New Peas, Tomatoes in Mayonnaise, Radishes, Indian Biscuits, Celery, Vienna Rolls, Edam and Swiss Cheese, Bent Biscuits, Coffee, Ice Tea, Brick Cream, Assorted Cakes, Cigars.

Fruits, Chocolates, Salted Nuts. The committee which has worked so hard to establish the new council is made up of Messrs. August Thro, Raymond Stanton, James E. Burke, John E. Cole, Joseph C. Packler, Edward A. Goll, Thomas Mullen, J. C. Thickstun and James Marra.

POLISH PRIEST

Succeeds Bishop Muldoon as Chicago's Auxiliary Prelate.

It now seems practically certain that the Right Rev. Peter J. Muldoon will be the first Bishop of the new diocese of Rockford, Ill. Last week Monsignor Falcone, the Papal Delegate, received a communication from Rome announcing the appointment of the Rev. Father P. C. Rhode to succeed Bishop Muldoon as Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago. Although the document made no mention of Bishop Muldoon's appointment, head of the new See, it is generally believed that his appointment will soon be made known.

Father Rhode is a native of Poland and is highly esteemed in Chicago by the Polish people. His selection as Auxiliary Bishop is expected to do much to heal old sores growing out of the former Slavic troubles. Father Rhode is well known in Washington also, and the utmost reliance is placed in his good judgment and administrative ability.

ANNUAL CONVENTION.

The Knights of St. John, a Catholic military, benevolent and fraternal insurance organization, held its twenty-eighth annual convention at Reading, Pa., this week. Not less than 4,000 Knights were present. It was its utmost to show the visit delegates a good time.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S DEATH.

From Princeton, N. J., on Wednesday came the news that Grover Cleveland, twice President of the United States, had died suddenly. From one end of the country to the other the news was flashed, and there was not an American in the whole country who did not express sorrow. They sorrowed, not because he was a Democrat or a Republican, but because he had been an illustrious American, because he had twice served the country in the highest office of the people of America could give him; because he arose from the ranks of the workers and had a mind and will of his own. With the names of Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Monroe, Lincoln and Garfield the name of Cleveland will be embossed in the hearts of patriots and will be emblazoned on the pages of United States history.

Grover Cleveland was born in Essex county, New Jersey, in 1837. His parents were able to give him an academic education, and at the age of twenty-two he was admitted to practice at the bar in Buffalo. He was active in Democratic politics, and in 1870 his party elected him Sheriff of Erie county. Eleven years later he was chosen Mayor of Buffalo, and the next year was nominated and elected Governor of New York by an united Democratic party. Only two years elapsed before he was elected President of the United States, the greatest political honor that any man could wish. Four years later he was again the nominee of the Democratic party for President, and was defeated. He accepted the nomination a third time in 1892, and led the Democratic hosts to victory. Within forty years Grover Cleveland has been the only Democratic President of the United States. Though elected as a Democrat, he was fair to all parties, and both of his terms as President were marked by peace and harmony. After his retirement in 1897 he pursued active politics and took residence at Princeton.

On June 2, 1886, he married Miss Frances Folsom, the sorrowing widow who survives him. She, with three children, none of whom have reached maturity, survive him. To Mrs. Cleveland and her children the sympathy of the entire nation is extended. Though one might differ from him in political matters, his opinions were always respected. His regard for law and order, for the supremacy of the people's will, and for the exaltation of the American flag will make his name renowned in the history of the United States.

PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY.

The school season is over for the next two months, and tired teachers have been relieved of the responsibility of watching over their young charges. Not so with parents. The responsibility of fathers and mothers seems to be increased tenfold during the vacation season. The child feels that release from school is a release from every restraint, and too often parents are prone to encourage the children, even those of tender years. Parents ought to know where their children are every hour in the day and every minute in the hour.

Many of these youngsters, too soon imbued with the American spirit of independence, venture alone on street cars, steam cars, hop wagons, seek a place to swim, even if they never swam a stroke before. So it is water the children care naught about, the depth nor the current. The result is that many homes are made sorrowful by sudden drownings and other accidents to life and limb. Often a little more care would have prevented a great deal of sorrow and loss of life. Even the young men entering on manhood are prone to risk their lives in the unknown creeks and pools. Last Saturday, for instance, two Louisville families were prostrated by the deaths of young men twenty years of age. One was William Grinstead Kinkadee, son of Judge Robert C. Kinkadee, the Republican nominee for Congress from this district. Young Kinkadee had recently graduated from the Manual Training High School, and was a sturdy, manly young man. He was held in high esteem by his teachers and classmates, and his shocking death plunged his family in grief. The other victim was John Hildebrand, a young mechanic whose home was on Wenzel street. He worked until noon Saturday and then went to the treacherous Ohio river for a plunge. His companions warned him, but he thought he knew his strength. Alas, before they knew it the youth swept away and drowned. There was naught but sympathy for the parents and families of these unfortunate young men, but these two instances ought to serve as a lesson for parents to be more watchful over the younger children, when two well grown youths meet such dire fates.

Another cause for anxiety at this season is the indiscriminate use of revolvers, blank pistols and gun powder. Many children feel that they have not celebrated July 4 unless they are fooling with dangerous weapons. Read the papers on the morning of July 5 and you will find scores of accidents reported from every State in the Union. Once again we advise parents to be more cautious with their children during the coming weeks of vacation.

ABUSIVE BLACKGUARD.

"Rev." Dr. P. A. Baker, Superintendent of the National Anti-Saloon League, came all the way from his home at Columbus, Ohio, to roast Louisville, to roast the State and the representative citizens of the city and State. He delivered his tirade of abuse before the International Sunday-school convention held in this city last Sunday. Refined people do not like blackguardism in private conversation or public speech, and they abhor it when it comes from the rostrum or pulpit. Louisville has many refined people, and one may be sure that few of our citizens applauded the blackguardism of Dr. Baker. The applauders were people from other States.

"Poor, saturated, soaked, rum ridden Louisville," was the way he referred to this city. He came as a guest of these citizens and then chose to insult them and their intelligence in their own house as it were. The delegates to this big Sunday-school convention have been well treated from start to finish. They have enjoyed the hospitality of people allied with them in their religious belief, and of people who differed from them. And yet when Dr. Baker denounced Senator-elect William O. Bradley, and Thomas M. Gilmore, and Congressman Swager Sherley, and the last Kentucky Legislature, he was applauded. Dr. Baker showed clearly that he knew nothing of these Kentucky affairs when he made vile abuse his only weapon.

He even opened his batteries of filth on the daily papers, but said in extenuation that he would be outside their circulation before they had a chance to get back at him. Dr. Baker's whole effort appeared to be made for the purpose of getting a little cheap notoriety. The refined people who were delegates to the Sunday-school convention repudiate his abuse and condemn his bad manners.

CHANCE FOR YOUNG MEN.

In Kentucky, as elsewhere throughout this broad land of ours, the schools, academies, colleges and universities are closing for the season. We are going through a period of financial and industrial depression. With mills and factories shut down and railroads laying off their employees, what are these tens of thousands of boys and young men to do to get a start in life? How are they to begin their battle against the world?

The thinking ones realize that they are up against hardship, perhaps privation. To those who think and who strive to attain, it will be all the better to face hardship and want now rather than in later years. The men who are the real captains of industry now are the men who started out in life handicapped by poverty and often by lack of education. Better than wealth and education in their early lives was their resolution and character. The captains of industry in the future must be recruited from the young men who begin their life battles now, and the young men with hope, with ambition, with character and a determination to succeed will find in the end that the present period of depression will help rather than hurt them.

SHERMAN THEIR CHOICE.

James Schoolcraft Sherman, who was nominated for Vice President of the United States by the Republicans at Chicago last week, had hardly gotten used to being a nominee before he became seriously ill. At Cleveland he was removed to a hospital, and his family was summoned from Utica, N. Y. At last accounts Mr. Sherman was much improved, and his physicians expect that he will be able to resume his journey homeward tomorrow.

Mr. Sherman is a resident of Utica, N. Y., and has represented his district in Congress for several terms. He is the Chairman of the Republican Committee in the House of Representatives. In private life he is President of a trust company. Mr. Sherman had practically no opposition for the nomination for Vice President. He is alleged to have a barrel of money. This recalls the time when Levi P. Morton, another man with a barrel, was the tail of the Republican political kite.

SOUVENIR EDITION.

Next Saturday the Kentucky Irish American will be ten years old, and it feels that it is getting to be a big boy now. To celebrate its decade a special issue will be published. It is the desire of its publishers to make the next issue the best in the history of the paper, both from a news and advertising standpoint. Our soliciting agents have not had time to call upon all the advertisers, and lest some should feel they had been overlooked we make this announcement. An advertisement in the Kentucky Irish American will increase your trade. If our agents have failed to call on you it has been from lack of time. You can place your "ad" by calling at this office, 335 West Green street, not later than Wednesday afternoon.

"Better late than never," is a good old adage, and Col. Haager is to be complimented on his latest order that firearms are not to be sold to minors either before or on July 4. If this order had been promulgated years ago many homicides and casualties might have been prevented. Chief Haager is not to blame for the remissness of his predecessors, but he would win the everlasting gratitude of all parents and good citizens if he were to make his injunction against the sale of firearms to minors perpetual.

liver shower in honor of Miss Rosella Fisher last Saturday. About thirty young lady friends of the bride-elect took part in the happy event.

John Tully and bride, formerly Miss Julia Coon, have returned from a bridal tour to Pittsburgh. They were married by the Rev. Father Conniff at the Church of Our Lady in Portland on Tuesday, June 16.

Miss Nellie Maloney, a charming young lady from Covington, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Chaw, Sr., 1141 Sixth street. She has been the recipient of many social attentions during her visit.

Mrs. P. S. Ganz, wife of the well known physician, left Thursday to spend three weeks with friends in Philadelphia and New York City. She will sail for Europe on July 16, and expects to remain abroad three months.

Mrs. William Kaiser, West Jefferson street, has been spending two weeks with relatives and friends in Chicago. Quite a number of receptions and parties have been given in her honor, with automobile trips to the country and rides on the lake.

Fred Stengel, the enterprising solicitor for the Frank Fehr Brewing Company, is able to be out after being confined to his room by rheumatism for three weeks. Mr. Stengel has lost some of his avoirdupois but none of his energy as a result of his siege.

Mrs. Albert F. Martin, who has been suffering from an attack of pleurisy and pneumonia at her home, 635 East Gray street, has sustained a relapse, and while her condition is serious her friends hope that she will soon be able to resume her household and social duties.

Miss Nellie Gibbons and John McDermott, popular young people of South Louisville, were married by the Rev. Father John O'Connor at Holy Name church Wednesday afternoon. After a brief trip to Chicago Mr. and Mrs. McDermott will begin housekeeping at 1919 Sixth street.

Miss Helen Mae Ballou and Walter C. Mitchell were united in matrimony by the Rev. Father A. J. Brady at St. Cecilia's church at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. Mrs. Edythe Head was the matron of honor and Raymond Head was the best man. After a brief reception at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left for Chicago on a bridal tour.

Miss Elizabeth Mallon and Charles Stiglitz were married in the rectory of St. John's church Thursday evening. The wedding was a very quiet one, and only a few intimate friends of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. They have taken up their residence at Sixteenth and Madison streets, with the groom's parents. The bride is one of the most charming young ladies in the East End, and her husband has received many congratulations on his good luck.

St. Philip Neri's church was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon when Miss Rosella Fisher became Mrs. Charles G. Wuersch. The Rev. Father Ackerman performed the ceremony. Miss Rita R. Keane was the maid of honor, while the ushers were Messrs. Ben Hutt and Frank Aufenkamp. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Wuersch left for a two weeks' tour to Chicago and Milwaukee. On their return they will reside with Mrs. Mary J. Fisher, mother of the bride.

Miss Katie Green took her friends by surprise Tuesday by becoming the wife of A. H. Macke, well known in railroad circles. The marriage was performed by the Very Rev. Father Clark at St. Louis Bertrand's church at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Macke are away on an Eastern trip and are not expected to return before August 1. The bride is one of the most charming girls in the Dominican parish, and for several years was active in the choir and Young Ladies' Sodality of the Blessed Virgin.

Miss Ella M. Howard and Peter J. Tegart, well and favorably known in New Albany, were married at Holy Trinity church in that city at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. Rev. Father Curran performed the ceremony. The attendants were Miss Anna Howard, a sister of the bride, and Frank Tegart, a brother of the groom. After the nuptial mass the bridal party was tendered a breakfast at the home of Mrs. Owen Tegart, and later in the day the newly wedded couple left for a trip to Chicago and other Northern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gould chaperoned a pleasant party of young people who went to Fern Grove, Ind., for an outing last Sunday. Those present were Misses Gertrude Blum, Kate and Jessie Carter, Willie South, Mary Sullivan, Sophie Murphy, Elizabeth and Ruth Lanahan, Anna Hungate, Margaret Simms, Ida Pickett, Mary Neuback, Josephine McIntyre and Messrs Herman Hertel, Jasper Connor, Dr. J. P. McDermott, Arthur Blanford, Charles Gould, Ernest Harold, James Scally, Arthur Nally, Joseph Russell, Bert Blanford, John Gatto, Norman McGrath, Frank Heintz, Nicholas Rehkopf, Arthur Heintzman and Edward McMahon.

Miss Theresa Sanford and Joseph T. Diersen were united in the holy sacrament of matrimony at St. Mary's church, Eighth and Grayson streets, at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The Very Rev. Father Westerman performed the ceremony. The bridesmaids were Misses Theresa Goetz and Mamie Diersen. The groom's attendants were Henry Diersen and Harry Goetz. Louis Vornholt and Joseph Sanford were the ushers. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Diersen were tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 1721 Twenty-eighth street. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sanford, a retired grocer. The groom is a son of the late Joseph Diersen, and succeeded his father in the brewing business.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Milwaukee will have an exemplification of the fourth degree in October.

A new council of the order will be established at Dumont, N. J., tomorrow afternoon.

The Rev. Father Walsh, of Kingman, has been appointed State Chaplain for the order in Kansas.

Topeka Council has taken possession of its new home, which is considered one of the handsomest club houses in Kansas.

A council has been established at Albion, N. Y., and large delegations from Buffalo, Rochester, Lockport, Batavia and Medina witnessed the exemplification of the three degrees.

Today three of the Boston councils are holding their second annual field day exercises, and all the funds that accrue will be donated to the Columbus day nursery, an enterprise founded by the three councils something over a year ago.

Not less than 200 Knights, representing nearly every State in the Union, will assemble at Denver July 3, to take part in the fourth degree celebration. Some of the most distinguished clergymen in the United States will be in attendance.

VISITORS FROM SANDUSKY.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McCarthy, of Sandusky, Ohio, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGuire, on East Gray street, during the present week. They came to Louisville to be present at the interment of Christopher O'Connor, a brother of Mrs. McCarthy, who was formerly Miss Lucy A. O'Connor. Mr. McCarthy is one of Sandusky's leading business men, and has a host of friends in Louisville.

ST. LEO'S PICNIC.

The Rev. Father John J. Fitzgerald, pastor of St. Leo's church, Highland Park, has arranged to give a picnic for the benefit of the church on the lawn surrounding the church on Thursday, August 27. Many handsome prizes have been donated for the affair. Last year the picnic for St. Leo's was attended by several thousand people, and this year is expected to be even a greater success.

NEW KENTUCKY HERO.

Word has come to Louisville that on Thursday E. Shelby Batman, son of Col. Thomas J. Batman, showed his Kentucky pluck and heroism by plunging into the river at Ann Arbor, Mich., to rescue a drowning fellow-student. Young Batman brought the boy to shore in safety, and won plaudits for himself and Kentucky chivalry.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Popular Patrolman Fell Victim to Heart Trouble.

The funeral of Officer Edward Dalton, who died at his home, 425 East Chestnut street, Saturday afternoon, took place Monday morning, a long cortege following the remains to their last resting place. The pall bearers were chosen from among his intimate friends on the police force, and were Capt. Edward Bright, John Moran, John Hepp, Jerry Quill, Thomas Dunn, John McCue, Ed Pulford, George Gay, Lawrence Dundon, Jerry O'Leary and Edward McGraw. Mr. Dalton was born in Louisville thirty-eight years ago, and had been a member of the police force during the past ten years. He was big of frame and heart, always good-natured and attentive to duty. He was taken ill on Thursday and sank rapidly after a severe attack of heart trouble on the following day. The end came with shocking suddenness to his family and friends. The deceased never married, but made his home with his father and sisters. His aged father is John Dalton and the sisters are Mrs. Minnie Von Buskirk and Miss Katie A. Dalton.

JUST WAITING.

Jeffersonville Knights Are Anxious to Establish Council.

A new council of the Knights of Columbus will be established at Jeffersonville, Ind., on Sunday, July 28. Raymond Stanton, Barney Coll and others have been active in the Louisville Council for several years. They know the advantages afforded by the Knights of Columbus and worked up a sentiment in favor of the organization in Jeffersonville. The result is that Evansville, New Albany, Louisville, Rushville and other towns will be represented a week from tomorrow.

The candidates and visiting Knights will assemble at the Elks Hall at 9:45 o'clock Sunday morning. Thence they will proceed to St. Augustine's church, where Father O'Connell will celebrate high mass. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Father Walter J. Cronin, of Rushville, Ind., and the conferring of the three degrees will begin at 1:30 p. m. Louisville Council will confer the first and second degrees, while a team from Evansville will confer the third degree.

At the banquet that will follow in the evening the speakers will be Hon. E. J. McDermott, Judge Matt O'Doherty and the Rev. Father Walter J. Cronin.

GLENN-WEITZEL.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Glenn, of Frankfort, Ky., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Agnes, to Oliver Bradley Weitzel, a rising young business man of Kentucky. The ceremony will be performed at the church of the Good Shepherd on the morning of Wednesday, June 24. The Rev. Father Thomas S. Major will officiate, and will be assisted by the Rev. Father John J. O'Neil, of Lexington. Nuptial high mass will follow the ceremony. Miss Glenn has been much admired in Frankfort society circles, and the news of her marriage was received with great interest. Mr. Weitzel is receiving many congratulations on winning such a charming bride.

RESTORED TO HEALTH.

Miss Mary Sheridan, who was taken dangerously ill while attending the Supreme convention of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America at Kansas City, and whose condition was not much improved for some time after she returned home, is now fully restored to health. She was able to be out this week, and received the congratulations of her numerous friends.

WON SCHOLARSHIP MEDAL.

Miss Alice Terstegge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Terstegge, of New Albany, was awarded the scholarship medal at the annual commencement exercises of St. Mary's-of-the-Woods, near Terre Haute, Ind. The honors and closing address were delivered by the Right Rev. Silas Francis Chatard, Bishop of Indianapolis last Tuesday.

NEW RITUAL ENDORSED.

Trinity Council exemplified the new ritual of the Y. M. I. on a class of twenty candidates Monday night. The attendance was large, and the new work was heartily endorsed by the older members and the embryo Y. M. I. President Kelly occupied the chair, and heard encouraging reports from the various committees. Three applications were received.

MAKING IMPROVEMENTS.

Dougherty & McElliott, the well known firm of funeral directors, are completing extensive improvements at their establishment, 1231 West Market street. When the work is completed there will be a new office, two-story chapel and all modern improvements.

MORE BISHOPS NEEDED.

The Provincial Council at Manila has petitioned for the erection of four new dioceses in the Philippine Islands. In case the petition is granted it is more than probable that four American bishops will be chosen to preside over the new Sees.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

At Utica, N. Y., the Ladies' Auxiliary unveiled a $300 banner with appropriate musical and literary exercises.

The Ladies' Auxiliary met Wednesday night and received encouraging reports for their day at the White City.

Mrs. P. J. Sheridan, State President of the Ladies' Auxiliary in New Hampshire, has just completed a tour of the divisions in her State.

The Irish fair at Hartford, Conn., under the auspices of Division 2, opened with over 2,000 present. It was in every way a grand success.

Division 17 of New York City presented a handsome gold badge to Secretary John O'Connor in recognition of his work for the success of the order.

Division 4 meets Monday night, and it is important that there be a large attendance, as President Hennessy will have some interesting news for the members.

President Con Ford feels elated over the progress of Division 2. The reports show that the members are active and stand in the front rank when hard work is to be done.

At Manchester, N. H., the County Board has set aside a sum for the purchase of prizes for the most proficient scholars in Irish history among the pupils of the parochial schools.

The Milwaukee auxiliary discussed the "Nice Catholic Young Man" at a recent meeting. The consensus of opinion was that there were enough of the product to supply the demand in that city.

Division 3's team, of Syracuse, and LeMoine Council's K. of C. team had another tilt at forty-fives last week. The Hibernians won by a score of 77 to 73. Each team now has 150 points to its credit.

Division 1 held a well attended meeting Tuesday night and took active steps for earnest work for the Fourth of July celebration. The members pledged President Malloy their earnest support, and this means much for the coming convention.

The fourth annual reunion of the order in Western Pennsylvania was held at Pittsburgh on Wednesday. In addition to the baseball and field games addresses were delivered by Patrick J. Heltigan, editor of the National Hibernian, and National Director P. T. Moran.

RECENT DEATHS.

Miss Catherine A. Connaughton, daughter of the late Martin Connaughton, and a young lady of great popularity, died at her family residence, 1422 West Broadway, Tuesday morning. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place from the Sacred Heart church Thursday morning.

Mrs. Mary Jane Brownfield, the aged widow of George W. Brownfield, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas C. Enos, 3607 Greenwood avenue, last Tuesday, and was buried from Holy Cross church Wednesday morning. The deceased was eighty-seven years old and had lived in Louisville nearly all her life. She is mourned by many friends and relatives.

Mrs. Theresa Rotman, twenty-seven years of age, died at her home, 540 East Green street, last Saturday as a result of a complication of diseases. Her husband, Joseph Rotman, and two children survive her. The funeral took place from St. Boniface's church Monday morning. Mrs. Rotman was a most estimable young woman, and was held in high esteem by all who knew her.

It was with great regret that his many friends and acquaintances heard of the death of Michael J. Reedy last Wednesday. Mr. Reedy was until the time of his death private secretary to Milton H. Smith, President of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, and had been in the employ of that company during the past twenty-two years. The deceased was a native of Louisville, and a son of the late Officer James Reedy and a brother of James Reedy, the well known attorney. A wife and five children survive him. The funeral took place from St. Francis of Rome church this morning.

MAIL MEN

Will Celebrate Both Today and One Week From Today.

The Louisville letter carriers will have their annual outing at the White City on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, June 27, and invite the public to join them and help to make the occasion an enjoyable one. Whatever funds accrue will be devoted to the relief of sick and disabled carriers, a worthy and commendable cause. The letter carriers come into contact daily with more people than any other employees of the government, and as a rule they are held in high esteem by those whom they serve.

The committee in charge is made up as follows: Louis W. Borntraeger, Chairman; Frank Caldwell, Charles Huber, Dan Cunniff, Edward Roebuck, Joseph Aschenmann, William Davis, Charles Carothers, John Jensen, Henry Zillich, James Barry, Caesar Hero, Henry Stewart and Fred Watkins.

Today is known as Postoffice day at the White City because the clerks from the local Postoffice are holding their annual outing there. It ought to be a pleasure for Louisville people who use the mails to encourage these people who serve them so faithfully. A good time is assured those who attend the White City today and next Saturday.

NOTED ATHLETES

Will Have Share in the Celebration of the Pope's Jubilee.

Pope Pius X. will celebrate his sacerdotal jubilee in September. His Holiness can not visit London, Paris, Athens or New York, and he must perforce let the healthful attractions of the whole world come to him. This is his jubilee year, but the real jubilee ceremonies will take place at the Vatican in September. While these ceremonies will be essentially of a religious nature, there will be other features.

Our Holy Father believes in the maxim of a sound mind in a sound body, and, to that end, has expressed a wish to see some of the noted athletes of the world. A wish from the Pope is practically a command, and his ecclesiastical subordinates have arranged to have a series of performances in the Vatican Gardens. The athletes of all Catholic countries will be there in full force. The Gaelic Athletic Association of Ireland has arranged to send representatives, and the Flannigans, Duffys and Sheridans of the United States will send their quota.

DOUBLE HEADER.

Although the Louisville team has gone abroad, Eclipse Park will not be deserted tomorrow. The Fox Ridge team and the Sutcliffe Juniors, two of the best amateur organizations in the city, will cross bats in a double header. During the present season neither of these teams have lost a game, and the crowd promises to be immense. Kinchel, the High School crack pitcher, and Johnson, Manual's star, will do slab work for Fox Ridge, while Ashby and Orendorf will take care of that end for the opposing nine. The first game will be called at 2 o'clock and the second game immediately after the first game is concluded.

COLONELS ARE AWAY.

The Louisville baseball club left Wednesday night for another tour, and no more professional ball will be seen here until July 3. Manager Jimmy Burke predicted before he left that the Colonels would win at least half the games played abroad, would try to win them all, and that he would be neither surprised nor sorry if they won 75 per cent. of them. Meanwhile Louisville fans are anxiously scanning score boards and foretelling the day when Tom Barker will be organized a sane enough National League that will take in every section of the country from Maine to California and Wisconsin to Florida.

WILL CRUSH A VISITOR.

Will Crush, a former Louisville boy and an alumnus of St. Xavier's College, spent several days in Louisville this week with his mother, brothers and sisters. Mrs. Crush had preceded him to Louisville. Mr. Crush is the General Passenger Agent of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad, and makes his headquarters in Texas.

FOR WORTHY CAUSES.

The Organ Fund Society of St. Augustine's church in Jeffersonville has arranged to give an excursion and picnic at Fern Grove on July 2, and the indications are that it may be necessary to engage two boats. Already many tickets have been sold.

SEEKING BETTER HEALTH.

The Rev. Father James Cusack, recently transferred from Paris and made pastor of St. Patrick's church at Covington, has been granted leave of absence on account of ill health. He is now sojourning in the West, where it is hoped he will soon recover.

HOPKINS THEATER.

Cool weather helped to bring additional crowds to Hopkins Theater this week, and those who witnessed the motion pictures were disappointed. Manager Dustin promises even a better bill for next week.

SIXTY YEARS IN ORDER.

Rev. Brother Lawrence, who was the oldest member of the Augustinian order in the United States if not in the world, died at Lawrence, Mass., last week. He was born in Ireland ninety-eight years ago and was admitted to the order at Villa Nova, Pa., in 1848.

For many years the "Quick Meal" has been universally acknowledged as the best gas range in the market. NEW IDEA

Seems to Find Favor With Delegates to Central Committee.

The Central Committee of the C. K. of A. met in St. Mary's Hall on Friday night of last week. In the absence of President Joseph P. McGinn, William T. Meehan was called to the chair, while Harry Veenehan was chosen to fill the position of Secretary. The attendance was good, and the committee in charge of the military euche and dance at Phoenix Hill Park on the previous Tuesday night reported that a good crowd was in attendance, that the euche games were contested in a spirited manner, and that the dance was a most interesting feature. The committee expects to make a complete report at the next meeting, when all the branches will have been heard from.

Attorney Newton G. Rogers, former President of the Central Committee, was given a splendid welcome when he appeared, and during the course of the evening was invited to address the delegates. He expressed his interest in the order, and extolled the good work done by the Catholic Knights of America in their undertakings. He urged all to work for the good of the order, and made a suggestion that put many of the delegates to thinking. Mr. Rogers' idea is to form a Catholic benevolent league, an organization similar to some of the German Catholic organizations, which will pay sick and death benefits, and when there was an accumulation of funds to help out reliable and thrifty members who were desirous of building homes, and could furnish the proper security. An organization of this kind, said the speaker, would advance the material and spiritual welfare of the members and make each individual a hardworking factor. The organization itself would form a body from which new members would be attracted to join the C. K. of A. Mr. Rogers' address was well received and heartily applauded.

FIVE DELEGATES

To the Grand Council Are to Be Chosen by Mackin.

Mackin Council met Wednesday instead of Tuesday this week on account of the Y. M. I. outing. President Robert T. Burke presided, and the attendance was fair. Anthony Meagher and Virgil Bohn, who were on the sick list, were reported as much improved. The council accepted an invitation to attend the outing of the Ladies' Auxiliary next Monday, and Mackin will be well represented on that occasion.

Charles S. Raidy, in behalf of the committee that had the outing in charge, reported that the members of his committee were well satisfied with the result of Tuesday's event, and desired to return thanks to Mackin's members for the part they played in making it a success. President Burke reported his request for a full attendance of the council next Tuesday night, when delegates are to be elected to the forthcoming grand council. Other matters of importance will be discussed on the same evening.

J. B. ATKINSON DEAD.

Joseph B. Atkinson, for twenty-eight years a member of the Louisville School Board, died at his home, 2605 West Jefferson street, Monday afternoon, after an illness extending over sixteen months. Mr. Atkinson was born in Louisville fifty-nine years ago and had resided in this city all his life. When quite a young man he was engaged in the painting contracting business, which he carried on very successfully, and later embarked in trade as a wholesale dealer in paints and oils. Throughout his long career as a School Trustee, he was never beaten, even when his colleagues were defeated by Republicans all over the city. He was always a friend to the Irish and Catholics and frequently fought their battles against overwhelming odds. The deceased is survived by his wife and four sons, William J., Thomas P. and Edward C. of this city, and Charles W. Atkinson, of Columbia, Tenn. The funeral services were held at the family residence Wednesday afternoon.

Y. M. I. DAY SUCCESS.

Y. M. I. day at the White City Tuesday was a success, although the weather was cool and unseasonable for June. Mackin and Trinity Councils of Louisville and Unity of New Albany vied with each other in attracting their friends to the park and then showed them a good time. The evening was delightful for dancing and those who delight in terpsichorean exercises filled the CHANCE FOR ALL.

St. Xavier's College Holds
 Two Sets of Closing Exercises.

St. Xavier's College was compelled to divide its commencement exercises into two parts this year. The increased attendance this year caused the Rev. Brother James, President of the college, to consider ways and means for allowing the friends of the pupils to witness the exercises. Although the hall will seat 1,200 people, it was all too small to accommodate those who would seek admission to the commencement exercises. Therefore it was deemed wise to hold one set of exercises for the preparatory students and another for the college department. The collegiate department will have its innings Monday night. Both entertainments are practically the same, but before different audiences.

The graduates this year are Robert Thomas Barry, Edward Joseph Brady, Norvin John Christ, Francis Joseph Dougherty, John Louis Eschrich, Charles Edward Gaupin, Henry Caruth Hoertz, Joseph Michael Hund, William Henry Jansing, Joseph Reginald Kelly, Woodson Powell Lee, George Augustus Melhaus, Walter Jerome Naber, Lee Edward Pierle, Riley Thomas Quillman, Henry Francis Redle, John James Reilly, John Joseph Ryan, John Francis Sullivan and John Bernard Voor.

Special course, Leroy Philip Sauter. As has been customary for many years, the oratorical contest for the gold medal offered by Frank A. Geher is the main feature of interest. In order to disappoint none the several young speakers delivered their addresses last night, and will repeat them on Monday night. The salutatorian was Charles E. Gaupin, whose subject was "The Poet Priest of the South." John F. Sullivan followed with "Centennial Names." Other speakers and their subjects are: Woodson P. Lee, "Religion and Science;" Joseph M. Hand, "The Power of the Catholic Press;" Henry C. Hoertz, "Christian Democracy;" Robert T. Barry, valedictorian, "Self-made Men." The orations will be repeated Monday night.

KNIGHTS' OUTING.

Followers of Columbus to Spend Day at New Haven.

Although the date has not been decided upon, it is practically settled that Louisville Council, Knights of Columbus, will hold its annual outing at New Haven between July 20 and 24. But Louisville Council will not be alone—Bardstown and Lebanon Councils will enjoy the outing with them, and in all probability New Albany and Jeffersonville Knights will follow suit.

The outing will be held in a grove on the outskirts of New Haven, one of the most beautiful spots in Nelson county. It is particularly fitting that the Knights and their families should seek a place of recreation in historic old Nelson county, the cradle of Catholicity in Kentucky and the West. Although New Haven has no council of its own, many of its citizens are affiliated with Louisville and Bardstown councils, and the entire populace will turn out to welcome the visitors on the occasion of the outing.

NEW ALBANY CITIZEN DEAD.

F. Alexander Reeveur, one of the most popular residents of Floyd county, Ind., was found dead in his yard in Lafayette township, five miles north of New Albany, on Wednesday morning. He had been suffering from heart failure for several months. The deceased was fifty-nine years old, and was for many years prominent in county and State politics. He served one term as Treasurer of Floyd county and was Deputy County Auditor for several years. His widow and eight children survive. The sons are William J. Reeveur, cashier of the Mutual Trust and Deposit Company of New Albany; Edward, Charles, Ferdinand and Chester, of Lafayette township; Mrs. Jacob Eberle and Miss Bertha Reeveur, of Floyd county, and Mrs. Arthur Bertliner, of Louisville.

HAVE GONE ABROAD.

Diederich Meschendorf, President of the Old Kentucky Distillery Company, with his wife and a party of friends, left Louisville Thursday en route to Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Meschendorf expect to spend a great part of the summer in Bremen, but will also visit Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Baden Baden, Dublin and other European points of interest before returning to America in October. Monday night Mr. Meschendorf was given a bon voyage dinner at the Seelbach by a number of his friends and admirers.
